

provide a caring, genuine, free-spirited, diverse place to work.

We are excited about building strong relationships with everyone we interact with: our customers, our community, and our suppliers. Community is very important to us, and we are an active part of our community. We purchase from local farms, donate food to charitable causes, and work with